It's Indure Blood.

"Dr. Pierce's medicine is what I have been most benefited by greatly, but it has done wonders for my two sons," writes Mrs. M. Harriott, of New York. "My oldest son, who is now 21 years of age, has lost two teeth in less than five years, and has been so weak and nervous that he was taken two of three years ago with hemorrhoids, and he has been in the hospital for over a year. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and also had a hemorrhoid operation on his back, but had no more hemorrhoids since he took your medicine. He is now a healthy man."

Accept no substitutes for "Golden Medical Discovery." It is nothing "if not good" for the discom of the stomach, blood and lungs.

For Appellate Judge—2nd District, JUDGE E. L. GUFFY,
OF Morgantown.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.

We are authorized to announce W. T. OWEN of Boone county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Yellow Jacket very humorously and very truthfully remarks that Cleveland wrecked the Democratic party and that Bryan wrecked the wreck.

The crowning of Edward VII.
Saturday was a little disappointing to the Gypsy soothsayer who, nine years ago, predicted that Edward would not live to be crowned.

The voters of this judicial district do not wish to add any title or honor to the name of candidate Settle, but on November the 4th they will add another letter to his name and make it, as well as his political ambition, Settle-d.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of Kentucky has been absorbed by a recently organized Illinois Company.
We understand that the policyholders of the old company will not lose anything by the deal, but the new company will probably pick up little business in Kentucky until its standing is better understood.

The Hartford Herald displays some anxiety because we said something about the Democratic race for Circuit Judge. Really, we feel little interest in this contest, but we will say to our friend, the Herald, that we favor its candidate to run against and the other fellow for Judge, if we must have a Democratic Judge.

Justice Gray, of the Supreme Court of the United States, has resigned and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, Oliver Wendell Holmes, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Justice Gray was also from Massachusetts and was appointed to the Supreme Bench twenty years ago. He resigned because of ill health.

The coronation of King Edward and Queen Alexandra Saturday was one of the farcical plays occasionally indulged in in Europe. The coronation of a King, whose real power is less than that of the Mayor of an average American city, looks ludicrous to an observer from this side the water, but if the British Empire cares to indulge in periodical displays of pageantry, we have no reasonable objection to the harmless pastime.

It would be extremely interesting to know whether a certain Democratic candidate for Circuit Judge because it thinks him best fitted for the office, or just for a Master Commissionership. If it favors him because it regards him the best man, with the Commissionership as an incident, it would be entitled to more influence with the voters than if it favored him because of the Commissionership with the good man as an incident. This question could be answered right here in Hartford.

The Republican leaders are feeling no very great anxiety about the result of the approaching Congressional elections. The country is experiencing the most prosperous era of its existence. Farm products are selling everywhere at satisfactory prices, labor is employed at remunerative wages and money is abundant at easy rates. The party in power will be given, as it deserves, just credit for this satisfactory condition of affairs. The Republican party stands for a definite, constructive policy which is well understood by the business interests of the country. The opposition stands for no definite policy. It depends for its existence upon opposing, whether right or wrong, every governmental policy proposed by the party in power, and on this sort of platform has divided into a score of warring factions, held together, when together at all, only by greed for power. Between these two agencies for government, it is not difficult, if we allow just credit to the usual good judgment of the American people, to forecast the result of the elections referred to.

The toilet room in the court house yard is a burning disgrace to the town. Citizens from every section of the county express their disgust with its condition. The jailer does the best he can, with the limited failities at his command, to keep it in decent order, but he cannot do so.

The majority of the Ohio Fiscal Court, decent enough in the personal of its makeup, is incapable of properly handling the affairs of the county.
Recently the more enterprising of our citizens have made some very significant sacrifices to place Hartford in the first-class of cities of its size, and every good citizen of the town must regret that the building referred to stands a foul-smelling sacrifice of decency, to say nothing of sanitary conditions. Every citizen of Ohio county whose business brings him occasionally to Hartford, should complain to the grand jury at its November sitting to compel the Fiscal Court to make decent provisions for a building of this character. We seek no advantage of a political opponent; we prefer to be just and fair to our public officials, but this is a matter against which there is a universal complaint by the citizens of Ohio county whose business calls them occasionally to Hartford.

SMALLHOUSE.

Mr. Buck Fulkerson had the misfortune of losing his house and most of its contents last Tuesday, August 5.
It is thought the fire started from a defective flue, as the house was discovered to be on fire while they were eating dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Calloway and little daughter, Maude, visited relatives in Daviess county last week.
They were accompanied from Beda to Daviess county by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bennett and son, Arnold. But, alas! their pleasure was all turned to sorrow by the unexpected death of their sister, Mrs. Bud Boehm, whom they were visiting. Mr. Boehm was Miss Bessie Calloway. She leaves a wee baby girl, which her sister, Mrs. Fielden Bennett will bring to her home in Beda to take care of.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morton and family, Mr. T. R. Barnard, wife and little daughter, Mary, went to Ceralvo last Wednesday and gave a surprise birthday dinner to Mr. Will Morton.
Mr. Robert D. Hunter, who has been staying with his sister, Mrs. Jas.
Trunnell, has returned home.

Miss Annie Lashbrook, Utica, Ky., was most agreeably surprised at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Hunter, by a birthday dinner, August the 6th. Several friends gathered in with well filled baskets and a most delightful day was passed by all present. There was dinner enough for all and as many more. She will leave to-day for Hartford to visit her brother, Mr. Strother Hawkins and family.

Mr. Robert Hunter and Mr. Michell Ball went to Rockport last Wednesday.

Mr. P. L. Wood, Ceralvo, was in our midst last Thursday.
Mrs. Annie Lashbrook spent a few days the guest of Mrs. J. C. Bennett last week.

Miss Mary Ball returned to her home last Sunday from a visit to relatives near Hartford.

Quite a crowd of our young people attended the ball game at Hartford Saturday.

Mr. Harry Bennett, who was quite sick several days last week, is able to be at work again.

Mrs. Bob Fulkerson is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter and daughter, Miss Ethel, have returned from a visit to Mr. S. J. Hawkins, Hartford.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach at Equality church the 5th Sunday at 11 a. m., and 4 p. m.

Mr. Charlie Bullock, who has been sick for several days, is better at this writing.

Mr. R. H. Everly and little daughters, Grace and Goldie, visited relatives in Beaver Dam and Rockport last week.

Miss Lala May Withrow has returned from a visit to her step-mother, Mrs. Lala Withrow, Jingo. She was accompanied home by Mr.
Will Brown.

Miss Oma Maddox began her school at Litter Monday.

Mr. Robert Hunter is the guest of his sister, Mrs. P. L. Wood, Ceralvo.
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Luck, Matanza, were the guests of Mrs. Joe Bullock Saturday and Sunday.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

We are having some hopes that the railroad from Beaver Dam to Hartford will continue up into this part of the county.

Mrs. P. W. Tabor, who has been on the sick list for some time, is better.
Mrs. R. K. Bean left last Friday and broke two ribs, and fractured one or two more. She is no better at this writing.

Mr. Banc Cate, of St. Louis, is visiting here.

Rev. and Mrs. Lawhorn, of this place, have gone to Salem to assist in a protracted meeting.

THE K. P. A.

The Kentucky Editors Have an Interesting Meeting at Owensboro.

And a Delightful Outing to the great Northern Lakes and the Border Land of the British Empire.

An 11 o'clock p. m. we boarded a "Texas" train for Cincinnati. The special train furnished us by the "Texas" and L. & N. line to Cincinnati was only one of the many instances in which these popular lines have put the Kentucky press people under justifying obligations to them.
We had breakfast at Cincinnati Thursday morning, then boarded a special Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton car for Detroit.

The trip through Ohio was extremely interesting to those of us who were traveling over this line for the first time. Fifty miles north of Cincinnati the ever present, endearing, eternal hills, that ever form a part of the landscape in Kentucky, disappeared, and upon either side of the road, stretching away to the limit of one's eye to see, were broad level fields of grain. In southern Ohio large fields of tobacco, rich with bloom, attracted our attention, and the porter said they were growing seed leak. Well, we won't have to ask it any more.

At Lima, Ohio, we saw, for the first time, an oil field. We saw thousands of derricks standing out like bony skeletons of some ancient race of giants. We were interested to see the engines lazily pumping up the liquid wealth for the great Standard Oil Company.

We arrived at Toledo at 4 o'clock p. m., where the City of Alpena, the prettiest steamer that cleaves the waters of Lake Erie, was boarded for Detroit. Again those of us who had not experienced lake navigation were delighted. Slowly the land line faded until only here and there the black smoke line from a distant steamer broke the monotony of the clear green bosom of the lake. No incident in the life of the writer forms so bright and interesting a memory as the moment when he for the first time saw the fading of the landline and beheld from the deck of a lake steamer a boundless ocean of water. He was conscious of a sense of loneliness that is indescribably grand.

The trip down the beautiful Manmee river, rich in French and Indian history, brought up vivid memories of school boy days, when we little dreamed of ever seeing the historic stream.

The association reached Detroit late in the afternoon and had supper at the Wayne Hotel. After supper we were the guests of the Elks' Carnival. Editor Remington, of the Paris Editor and the writer spent the evening together at the Carnival, and left no sights unseen.

Friday morning the street railway people of Detroit took charge of the association and gave us a view of that beautiful city that will be a pleasant and lasting memory to the Kentucky press people. Two special cars were placed at our disposal for a ride out Woodward Avenue, the prettiest residence street in the world.

The city of Detroit is reputed to be the cleanest city in the world, and we think the Kentucky editors would readily make affidavit to this fact, at least so far as their observations go.

At 7 o'clock Saturday morning we boarded the Frank E. Kirby for Port Huron. We passed out of the beautiful Detroit river into Lake St. Clair, and then into St. Clair river, connecting Lake Huron and Lake St. Clair, affording a delightful view of St.
Clair flats, arriving at Port Huron at 3 o'clock p. m. At Port Huron the writer met unexpectedly a friend, and was temporarily separated from the press party. The press party had a trip through the famous St. Clair tunnel under St. Clair river. On account of the enormous tonnage through St.
Clair river, a draw bridge would be impossible, and the great Nations of the United States and Great Britain are connected by the St. Clair tunnel.

The writer, in company with the friend above mentioned, Mr. Caran-ahan, visited Sarnia, Ontario, and for the first time viewed the Stars and Stripes from a foreign shore.

At 4 o'clock p. m. we left Port Huron to join the press party at Mt.
Clemens, a summer resort famous for its mud baths for rheumatism. At Mt. Clemens we were the guests of the Avery Agnew Hotel. We sincerely regret that we cannot say something complimentary of this hotel, but find it impossible to do so, consistent with fair dealings with our readers. The manager of the hotel, Mr. Morse, claimed that the waiters and laundry people had gone on a strike just before our arrival, but the lack of dining room service as well as service in our private rooms, was to say the least, far from satisfactory.

Saturday morning we left Mt.
Clemens for Star Islands, where we had an elegant dinner by the grace of Mrs. T. A. Slocum, the proprietress, of that elegant house.

SCROFULA

I bequeath to my children Scrofula with all its attendant horrors, humiliation and suffering. This is a strange legacy to leave to posterity; a heavy burden to place upon the shoulders of the young.

This treacherous disease dwells in the body and hinders the growth and development of the faculties, and the child born of blood poison, or scrofula-tainted parentage, is poorly equipped for life's duties.

Scrofula is a disease with numerous and varied symptoms; enlarged glands or tumors about the neck and armpits, catarrh of the head, weak eyes and dreadful skin eruptions upon different parts of the body show the presence of tubercular or scrofulous matter in the blood. This dangerous and stealthy disease entrenches itself securely in the system and attacks the bones and tissues, destroys the red corpuscles of the blood, resulting in white swelling, a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength and a gradual wasting away of the body.

S. S. S. combines both purifying and tonic properties, and is guaranteed entirely vegetable, making it the ideal remedy in all scrofulous affections. It purifies the deteriorated blood, makes it rich and strong and a complete and permanent cure is soon effected. S. S. S. improves the digestion and assimilation of food, restores the lost properties to the blood and quickens the circulation, bringing a healthy color to the skin and vigor to the weak and emaciated body.

Write us about your case and our physicians will cheerfully advise and help you in every possible way to root out the blood poison. Book blood and skin diseases free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

MAKING IT PLAIN.

A wise man or woman is always looking for the store where he gets real value for what he spends. He looks at the quality first, quantity second.
He knows that the spurious use all their powers in imitating the good. He comes where he knows he can get real value for what he spends—where they sell at a narrow margin and do a large volume of business.

Resolutions of Respect.
Resolutions upon the death of Thomas Larkin Griffin, passed and adopted by the officers and directors of The First National Bank of Hartford, Ky., August 13, 1902.

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an Alwise God, our esteemed President and beloved brother Director, Thomas Larkin Griffin, has been called from his labors among us to that eternal place prepared for those who love Him, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in his death the First National Bank has sustained the loss of an able, conservative, faithful member of its directory and its capable and honorable President, who has so successfully directed the affairs of our Bank since its organization; that the community has lost a just and upright citizen, and the family a kind and indulgent father and husband.

RESOLVED, That we mutually, with his family, grieve over the loss we have all sustained, and that we commend them to Him who is a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow, and who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED, That these evidences of respect and esteem be spread upon the records of the Bank, a copy presented to the family of the deceased, and that they be read at the funeral services of our co worker and published in each of the Ohio county papers.

THE RAILROAD.

Surveyors Going Over the Route and Will Complete the Work To-Morrow.

Mr. M. Armitage and son, civil engineers, began, at Beaver Dam Monday morning, a survey of the route for the railroad from that place to Hartford. The engineers have completed the survey to muddy flats, and are expected to reach Hartford to-morrow. Monday the engineers will begin to set grade stakes, and by September 1, they expect to have the route ready for the plows and scrapers. While the contracts for grading the road bed have not yet been let, there is no longer a reasonable doubt about the road being built.

Messrs. Armitage and son are practical railroad builders, and the building of the new line will be practically under their supervision.

If our country friends want to see this old town again before she sheds her rusty skin and comes out in a nice, new epidermis, they should come in at once.

Self Explanatory.

REPUBLICAN, Hartford, Ky.—Please send copy of paper containing account of Indian ball game here.

GUY W. GREEN,
Manager Nebraska Indians, Sullivan, Ind.

August 10, 1902.

HARTFORD, KY., Aug. 12, 1902.

Mr. Guy W. Green, Sullivan, Ind.

Dear Sir:—I have your letter of 10th inst., requesting me to send you copy of my paper containing account of ball game here. I regret to have to say that on the account of the local managers here failing to supply my office force with complimentary tickets, (in my absence,) notwithstanding, we had given the game several dollars worth of free advertising, I do not feel called upon to mention the ball game here, except a brief news mention. Pardon me for suggesting that hereafter you should see that newspaper people, who have treated you liberally, have passes to your games. I return herewith the price of paper enclosed. However, I shall mail you copy of paper of date mentioned.

Very truly yours,
JOHN H. THOMAS, Editor.

DEATH AT DUNDEE

Of Mr. Chesterfield Cole, a Prominent and Respectable Citizen.

Mr. Chesterfield Cole, a prominent citizen and Mason, died at his residence, at Dundee, Thursday night, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Cole was first attacked with acute pain in his head, the cause of which his physicians were not entirely able to understand, and for several days his death was expected hourly. But he so far recovered that he was able to be out again, and his friends had reason to hope that his recovery would be complete, but about a week before his death he had another attack of the mysterious trouble and sank rapidly until his death.

Mr. Cole was about thirty-five years old, and leaves a wife and four children.

Court Notes.

More business is being done at this term than usual. A large number of cases have been disposed of and many cases will yet be tried. The indications are that the fall three weeks will be occupied with trials.

The following results were had in cases named:

Thos. McDaniel vs. I. C. R. R. Co., judgment for $50.00.

Bertha Duke vs. Robt. Nelson, &c., verdict for defendant.

Wm. Broughton vs. I. C. R. R. Co., verdict for plaintiff.

F. B. Sullivan vs. Helrick Lumber Co., verdict for plaintiff for $25.

Beaver Dam Deposit Bank vs. W. C. Smith, verdict for $100 for plaintiff.

Ed Cooper vs. I. C. R. R. Co., judgment for $30 for plaintiff.

B. D. Ringo vs. Helrick Lumber Co., continued at cost of defendant.

Thos. Burton vs. J. W. Martin, verdict for plaintiff.

Ernest Woodward vs. I. C. R. R. Co., agreed judgment for $2,000.

John Brown vs. Robt. Hoover, now on trial.

In the matter of the suit filed by N. Barrass, etc., vs. T. J. Smith, etc., to enjoin the Democratic Judicial Committee from holding a primary on November 4, a regular election day, to nominate candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, motion to dissolve the injunction was sustained, and judgment suspended for twenty days, in which time the plaintiffs will take the case before some member of the Court of Appeals and ask that the injunction be reinstated.

The following divorces have been granted at this term:

Rudy Duncan vs. Asa Duncan.

Perry Vinyard vs. Luby Vinyard.

Robert Decker vs. Margaret Decker.

Visiting attorneys—Hos. Lavaga Clements, Judge L. P. Little, and Judge C. W. Massie, Owensboro, S. P. Robey and B. L. Kelly, Fordville.

Anthony Thatcher, Morgantown, Jno. Rone, Centertown, and J. M. Porter, Beaver Dam.

What are Humors?

They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited.

How do they manifest themselves?

In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility. How are they expelled? By which also builds up the system that has suffered from them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It is the best medicine for all humors.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT

Results in the Death of One of Hartford's Best Citizens and Business Men.

Mr. T. Larkin Griffin died Tuesday noon from an injury received in a fall Friday night. Funeral services were conducted at his residence by Revs. G. J. Bean and J. C. Petrie at 10 o'clock Wednesday and the interment in Oakwood Cemetery followed at noon.

Friday night Mr. Griffin and Contractor Ike Foster were sitting in Mr. Griffin's drug store discussing plans for the rear extension to the drug store, when Mr. Griffin stepped to the rear door to point out some specific plans he had in view, and forgetting the removal, a few days before, of a storage room in the rear, walked out at the rear door and fell seven feet to the ground below, the fall breaking his right leg above the knee and fracturing his thigh. Later his physicians determined that he suffered also internal injuries to which his death was immediately attributable. Medical science was exhausted in the treatment of the unfortunate patient, but he grew steadily worse until Tuesday, noon, when his great soul went out to eternity.

Mr. Griffin was born on a farm near Beaver Dam 54 years ago, and engaged in the drug business with his brother, Z. Wayne Griffin, now deceased, here, about thirty years ago, in which business he has since been engaged.

Mr. Griffin married Miss Mary Foreman, after whose death he married Miss Lillie Taylor, whose death left him again a widower, when he married Miss Maggie Craig, who survives him.

Larkin Griffin was, indeed, one of the best citizens Hartford ever had, and his death will be deeply mourned by our people. Mr. Griffin had, by his generous dealings with the public, amassed quite a nice little fortune and at the time of his death, was President of the First National Bank of this city.

Eternal peace to his dust.

DICK NICHOLS.

Of Barren County, Given His Liberty Last Saturday.

Dick Nichols, who has been in jail here for several weeks, charged with burning Taylor Stevens' barn near Centertown, was released from custody Saturday, upon proof that he was confined in the Danville, Ill., jail at the date of the burning.

Dick is a Barren county young man, who had the misfortune to love a young lady of his neighborhood, who jilted him about six months ago for an Ohio county man. Dick followed the newly wedded couple to Ohio county and got himself in jail by peeping through the window of his truant sweetheart's room.

Public sympathy finally effected his release from prison and he returned to his home in Barren county. A few weeks later Dick's old sweetheart and her husband went West to seek their fortune, and Dick, longing for a last farewell look at the woman he loved, went west also.

Dick was not sure of the whereabouts of the couple in question, and while prospecting in the city of Danville, Illinois, fell in with a couple of generous strangers who obligingly relieved him of his wad. The strangers were immediately apprehended, and Dick, lacking a permanent residence in Illinois, as well as sufficient bondsmen, was put in prison to insure his presence as a witness in upholding the dignity of the great State of Illinois.

Unfortunately for Dick, while he was languishing behind the bars of an Illinois jail, Mr. Taylor Stevens' barn was burned near Centertown, in this county, and as Dick had formerly done the window peeping act about Mr. Stevens' residence, he was very naturally charged with the crime and especially as some obliging would-be witness, claimed to have seen Dick near Mr. Stevens' premises in the afternoon before the barn was burned. As a result, a warrant was sworn out for Dick's arrest and Sheriff Keown went to Danville, and brought him back to Hartford where he was again lodged in jail for safe-keeping. But by and by, Dick's innocence was proven and he was again given his liberty. He left at once for his home in Barren county, and, judging from the experience of his two former visits here, will never visit Ohio county again.

Dick has been in jail twice in Ohio county and once in Illinois, but it is safe to say that he is as harmless a creature as ever yet set cold prison bread.

Our voting contest is growing in interest and the friends of some of the
